Onaqui Mountain Herd Management Area Fertility Control

Based on the analysis of potential environmental impacts in the Environmental Assessment (EA) DOI-BLM-UT-W010-2014-0021-EA for the Onaqui Mountain Herd Management Area Fertility Control project and consideration of the significance criteria in 40 CFR 1508.27, it has been determined that with applicable protective measures, the Proposed Action alternative would not result in significant impacts on the human environment. An environmental impact statement (EIS) is not required.
